

Suggested Donation
$10.00

Saturday June 26, 2010

Healthy Intimate Relationships From Dysfunctional To Functional

Registration 1:00 pm
Begins at 2:00pm-5:00pm

This is a workshop for anyone interested in.....

- * Using the 12 steps in the healing process
- * Creating a healthy sexual life as the completion of the recovery process
- * Achieving emotional, physical, spiritual and sexual health and their importance in healthy relationships.

WHERE:

*The Episcopal Church of St. Thomas the Apostle
6525 Inwood Road
Dallas, TX 75209
(NW corner of Inwood and Mockingbird)*

Speaker/Facilitator

Suzanne Wallace, LCDC, CSAT, CART is an highly regarded lecturer and therapist in the field of addictions. She has worked actively in the field since 1974, assisting couples, families and individuals as it relates to the effects of addictions (alcohol, drugs, sex and love, nicotine and eating disorders, gambling, religion), codependency and trauma issues. She graduated from Hazelden's training program in 1979, studied with Patrick Carnes to become a Certified Sex Addiction Therapist and has worked closely with Pia Melody, receiving training in her model for over 20 years. In private practice in Dallas since 1990, she had previously worked at the Meadow's , the Betty Ford Center and Baton Rouge General Hospital. She offers individual workshops modeled after Pia Melody's Survivor Workshop and is a frequent lecturer in the Dallas community addressing such topics as Love Addiction/Love Avoidance, Codependency, Sex and Love Addiction, Partners of Sex Addicts, The Twelve Steps and Healthy Relationships.